RIFLE CONTEST TO BE HELD DEC. 5

The Ogden Rifle and Revolver association, at a meeting last night, arranged to give a trophy to the champion indoor rifle shot of Weber county. The trophy is a watch for the year, consisting of a gold pendant and bar and will be placed on exhibition at the John S. Lewis jewelry store.

The contests were arranged to take place on the night of December 5, at the National Guard armory, on Twenty-fourth street and is open to all indoor rifle shots of Weber county.

The conditions of the contest are:

that only .22 caliber rifle with any sights not containing glass, can be used. The position is according to the National Guard armory, on Twenty-fourth and the contenders will shoot from the official target of the N. R. A. with a count of ten. One hundred shots are to be fired by each contestant.

The range officer will be Lieutenant Clayton Coolidge, a life member of the National Rifle association. Lieutenant Coolidge is considered an authority on rifle and revolver shooting.

The local club was organized last year and conducted several contests and this year wishes to enlarge its scope. All residents of Weber county who desire to enter the contest set for December 5, are requested to communicate with Secretary W. H. O'Byrne, Box 363, City.

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin diseases, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institution on application), writes regarding a patient: "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

A Thrilling Tale of Adventure in the Canadian Northwest

JACK CHANTY

By

HULBERT FOOTNER

Author of "Two On the Trail," Etc.

THE STORY opens with Jack Chanty floating idly into camp perched upon his raft singing to the accompaniment of his banjo, little dreaming that while he had hidden himself from the world—the world, or at least an important part of it, was coming to him. For on that day Garrod and Linda found his retreat. And Jack Chanty was the last man Garrod ever wanted to see again.

Mr. Footner knows and loves the wilds and he has here told a very dramatic story of the adventures of Garrod's party guided by Jack Chanty of the mystery at home that Garrod tries so hard to hide and of the jealousy of Linda and the trader's daughter.

COMMISSIONERS TO FIGHT THE COUNTY ASSESSOR

In the mandamus case of J. A. Mathews, deputy assessor, against Weber county, the county board of commissioners, has filed a report and answer.

The commissioners contend that the services of the deputy during the time for which he seeks remuneration from October 16 to November 1 were not needed and that the assessor, T. E. Mathews, had been advised of that fact.

It is confessed that the plaintiff was employed as deputy assessor January 6, 1913, at a per diem salary of $3.00.

Further answering the writ of mandamus, the commissioners say that the assessor could have well performed the duties of his office during the time he had two deputies at work in October and that they had used their best efforts to get him to do so.

Law questions will be argued before the court in the course of a few days and it is likely that a jury will be empaneled in the case.

A recapitulation of city receipts and expenditures furnished by Auditor William Van Dyke, Jr., shows the receipts to have been about $17,246 less than the expenditures during the month of October, as follows:

Receipts.
Public affairs and finance.	$13,326.31
Water supply and water works.	6,957.94
Public safety.	667.30
Streets and public improvements, etc.	994.05
Total.	$21,944.70
Expenditures.
Public affairs and finance, etc.	$13,318.49
Public safety.	5,441.24
Streets and public improvements, etc.	10,431.53

CONCERT AT THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH

A high class concert has been arranged for the night of Thanksgiving to be given in the First M. E. church. It has been thought that this would be a fitting way to provide for the spending of the evening of that day. A variety of fine talent has been secured, as will be seen from the program to be published in next issue of this paper.

There will be no admission, but a thank offering will be received for the support of the musical department of the church.

THANKSGIVING AT THE STATE SCHOOL

Commencing at 10 a. m. the Thanksgiving day program at the State School for the Deaf and Blind promises to be one of the most interesting and enjoyable that has ever been given at the school.

The morning program will be furnished by the Deaf and Blind students and will open with a piano solo, "Gratitude," by Miss Ida Foster. The reading of the governor's proclamation will be by Leo Ritchie and Marie Hunter, and the smaller blind children will give a selection, entitled "Thanksgiving Joys."

The presentation of a series of living pictures will follow the children's number and will be descriptive of character famous in the first Thanksgiving era. "Governor Bradford" will be presented by Loran Savage, and Irene Jones; "Miles Standish" by Alma Wild and Nellie Payton; the Indian chief, "Massacott," by Glenn Killingsworth and Frank Nelson; "John Alden" by Kenneth Olsen and Scott Storey; "Priscilla," by Cora Hitezman; and "Miss White" by Olive Smith.

"November Fun" will be sung by Margaret Lamb and the recitation, "Thankful for What," will be given by Arnold Royance. Gladys Jones, Myrtle Jewett, Caroline Wood, Rosa Piva, Ronson West, O'Dean Rasmussen, Andy Goga, and Emerson will present the "Little Pilgrims' Drill," and the program will close with the piano solo, "Blakeslee's 'Valse,'" by Linda Masocera.

A dinner will follow the program and the students and attendants will close the occasion with a dance in the evening.

Women of Woodcraft Circle No. 581.

All members are earnestly requested to be present Wednesday evening, November 26; business; election of all officers for the ensuing year.

MOTION DAY IN DISTRICT COURT

Judge J. A. Howell has passed upon motions in cases in his division of the district court, as follows:

Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph company vs. James J. Barker, demurrer sustained and 20 days given to amend.

Consolidated Wagon & Machine company vs. William Merrill et al, demurrer overruled and 10 days given to answer.

Wilcox Grocery company vs. D. S. Tracy et al, demurrers overruled and 15 days given to answer.

RECEPTION GIVEN BY WORKERS OF THE FOURTH WARD

The workers of Ogden stake gave Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Wright a reception in the Fourth ward meeting house last night on the eve of their moving to the Weber stake. There were between 200 and 250 persons present and a most enjoyable time was had by the large assemblage.

There was a program in the chapel and then all adjourned to the hall where an orchestra rendered excellent music for the dance. Later refreshments were served.

Those in charge of the social were: Mrs. Annie McKay Farr, chairman; Thomas Jost, Maud B. Porter, Lawrence Richards, Moroni Olsen, William M. McKay, Nina McFarland, Grace Stangenberg and Olive Belnap.

The program was as follows: Welcome Talk, Grace Stangenberg. Piano Solo, Beatrice Brewer. Solo, Maud B. Porter. Duet, Miss Read and Miss McCrea.

Baritone solo, Mr. Nephi Brown. Interesting Talk, Thomas B. Evans. Response, Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

PASSENGERS MUST KEEP AWAKE

According to a ruling in the circuit court of Christian county, it is not the duty of trainmen to wake up sleeping passengers who have reached their destination.

Suit for damages has been filed against a railroad company by a man who had been carried past his station. He was on his way to Hopkinton one night last summer, and was asleep when the train reached that city. He failed to hear the trainman's familiar call of "All out for Hopkinton!" and was carried on to Galtville, where he was compelled to spend the night and buy a ticket back home the following morning.

The court dismissed the plaintiff's suit on peremptory instructions, holding that the train crew had done all that was required in calling the station and stopping the train. For the man who occupies a berth in a Pullman there would be cause of action in such a case. The situation is different with the man who risks forty winks of sleep in a chair in the day coach and unwittingly exceeds the limit. He is supposed to know where he is going and to be on his way with eyes and ears open. He is presumed to have a definite idea as to where he gets off, and to reach for his grip and umbrella when the porter, or some other train official, calls out the place of his destination. This, too, though the calling may be in such unfamiliar language that he doesn't know whether the trainman said "Hopkinton" or "Galtville!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.
